Cassidy Ward

PTSO Business:

Anna Smith moved to approve September's meeting minutes, and Karan Seelbinder second the motion.

Mandy Kuskie reported that many people have signed up for Raley's Extra Credit program, Douglas High School PTSO's only form of fundraising. If you haven't signed up yet, please see directions on September's minutes.

Guest Speaker: Kristina Erb: Social Media and Internet Safety

A lot of valuable information was shared. Please see the attached document, as well as the following link to the presentation.

Reminder: The public is invited to a Town Hall Meeting to discuss needed repairs to DCSD buildings, current funding, and how additional funding for repair projects would be allocated. (Douglas County Question 2)

- Thursday, October 20, at C.C. Menely from 6-7 p.m.

Update on Parent Teacher Conference food donations.

Thank you so all who have donated so far! We are still in need of salads (or anything that doesn't need to be heated). We are all set with desserts.

Food items can be brought to the office on Monday from 7:00 a.m. to 4:00 p.m. Teachers will be breaking for dinner at 4:00 p.m.

If you bring utensils/serving dishes, please label them!

Lastly, if you have scheduled a conference for Monday, PLEASE BRING YOUR CHILD WITH YOU!

Administrator's Comments

Marty Swisher shared upcoming dates:

PSAT and ASVAB tests: Wednesday, October 19

Career Fair: Life After High School: Thursday, November 17

PTSO upcoming dates:

Holiday Gift Bags: December 8

We collect a variety of treats and put together gift bags for our teachers.

Teacher Appreciation Week: Second week in May

We provide an appreciation breakfast for the staff.

We would greatly appreciate any donations for the above events!

Next meeting will take place Thursday, November 10, 2016

Meeting was adjourned at 7:16 p.m.
